Art for the Thinking Person

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

We have selected the following 25 works of art from the Collection called "Philosophical Concepts"

When Mendoza-Garrastazu developed this art collection he set as a goal that the works of Arts should meet 4 objectives.

Objective No1 - To bring to light a philosophical concept, that did not have a physical representation , until now.

Objective No2 .- The representation had to be simple, using only geometrical figures, and understandable in its expression to everyone

Objective No 3 .- It had to be based on the definition of the term, to reflect in the most accurate way possible the specific meaning of the concept.

Objective No 4 .- It had to be beautiful, pleasing , elegant in the use of color and simple in communicating the concept.

We hope you enjoy this collection,

Decision

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

Decision-making can be regarded as the cognitive process, which results in the selection of a belief or a course of action among several alternative or possibilities. Every decision-making process produces a final choice with or without action associated.

Decision-making is the study of identifying and choosing alternatives based on the values and preferences of the decision maker.

Thought and Idea

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

The Definition

Thought can refer to the ideas or arrangements of ideas that result from thinking, the act of producing thoughts, or the process of producing thoughts. Shown as the Yellow lines.

Thought is a fundamental human activity familiar to everyone, there is no generally accepted agreement as to what thought or how it is created.

Thoughts are the result or product of spontaneous acts of thinking. Created in the Black space, or gap , or silence of the mind connected to the universe, Then in between the thinking process, an Idea is generated an shown by the white dot.

Cause – Effect

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

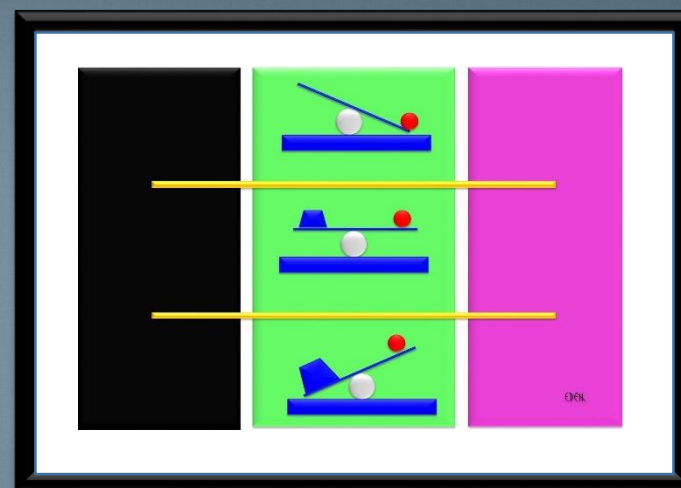

The Definition

Relation of Cause – Effect : is the relation between an event (the cause) and a second event (the effect), where the second event is understood as a /or consequence of the first.

Understanding this relation in life is paramount, because in any problem in any situation you have in life, In order to truly resolve the issue, you must ask what is the cause, what provoked the effect. This remind us in simple terms to look for the cause, which for some unknown reason we tend to forget
