Art for the Thinking Person

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

We have selected the following works of art from the Collection called “Philosophical Art”

When Mendoza-Garrastazu developed this art collection he set as a goal that the works of Arts should meet 4 objectives.

Objective No1 - To bring to light a philosophical concept and themes , that did not have a physical representation.

Objective No2 .- The representation had to be simple, using only geometrical figures, and understandable in its expression to everyone

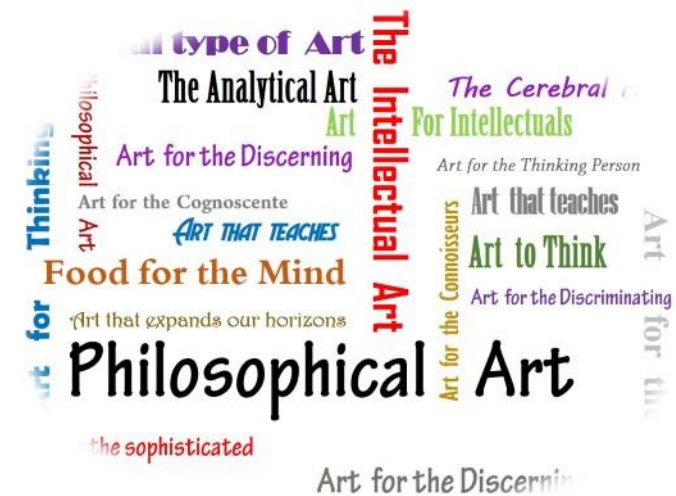

Objective No 3 .- It had to be based on the definition of the term or concept, It had to reflect in the most accurate way possible the specific meaning of the concept.

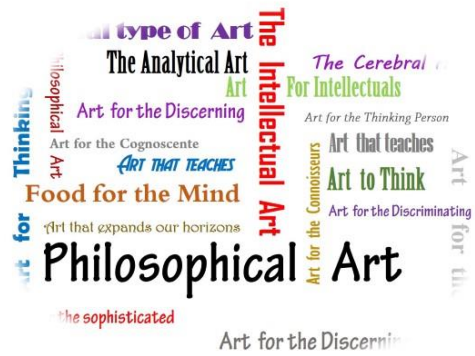

Objective No 4 .- It had to be beautiful, pleasing , elegant. In the use of color and clean, simple in its expression.

We hope you enjoy this collection,

Thank you

Each art work in this collection , offers at minimum a complete chapter on the subject. Contemplate

2 Big Spectacles

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

There, I guess King George will be able to read that without his spectacles! John Hancock

Signing the Declaration of Independence was considered treason, and involved grave risks for all who put their names to the paper. The British forces paid special attention to those who had signed. Signers' families had to escape to safer locations in some cases, and their property was often looted or destroyed.

Flaunting Determination and courage to the King of England.

I have a dream

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin, but by the content of their character.

Evolution of the tyrant sword

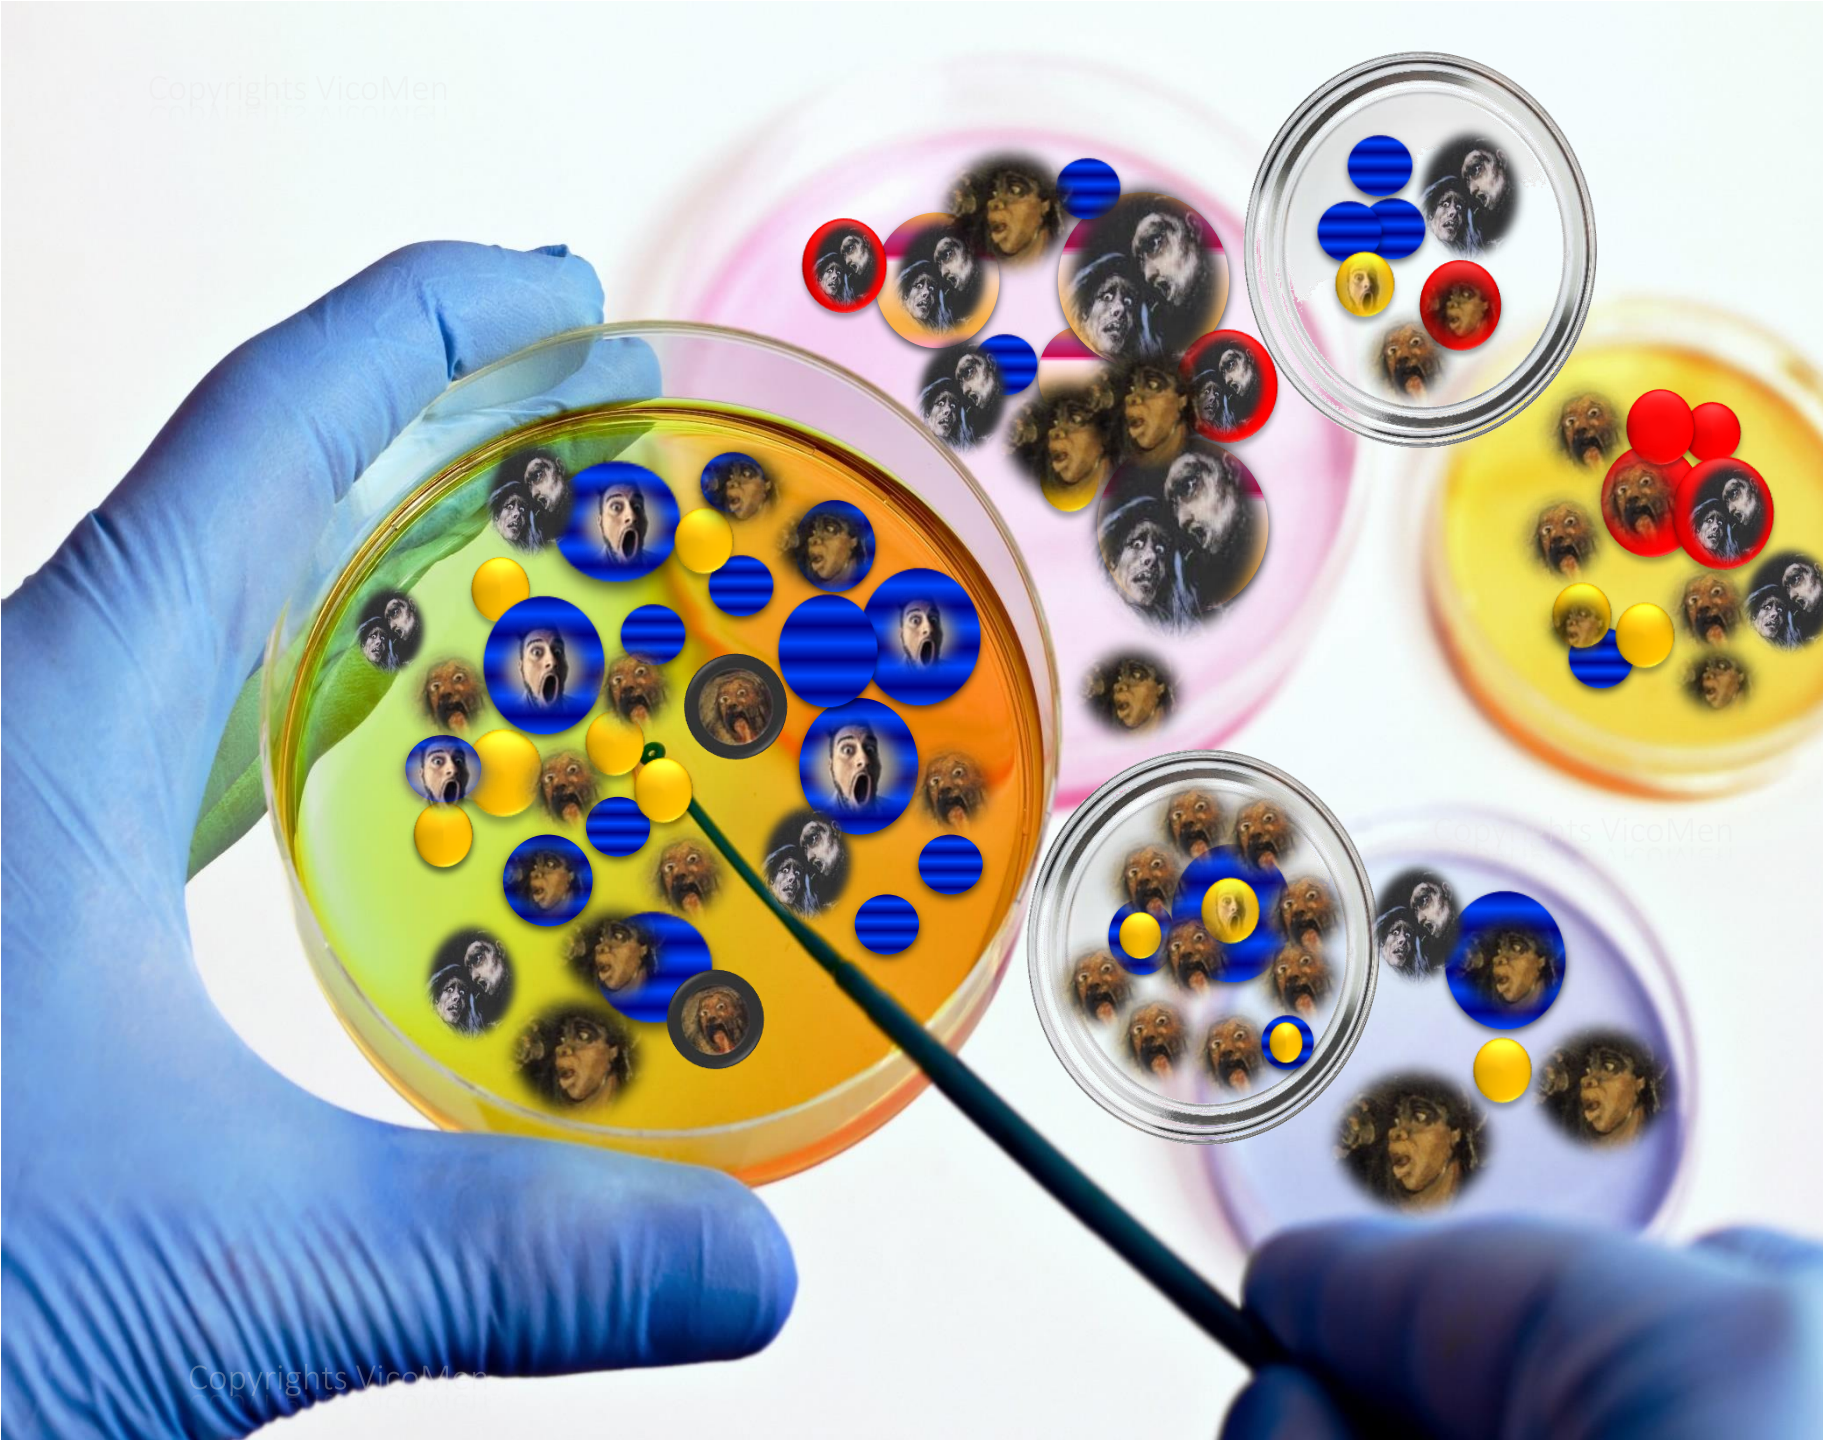

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

The evolution of social system, has transformed the sword of repression into the sword of law. To impose the will of those in power, now they call it the law, a sword that does all the killing and repression like before, with and added advantage for the dictators, that it deceives some people, and calm there conscience, by justification of the Law.

No matter how you dress it, injustices and repression, will continue to be injustices and repression.

Like in mathematics, the only laws You need to have in any orderly and benevolent society are those that are called principles. Success, education, etc. can not be legislated

Social Consciences

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

Social consciousness is consciousness shared by individuals within a society, represented by each dish

In the social production of their life, men enter into definite relations that are indispensable and independent of their will; these relations of production correspond to a definite stage of development of their material forces of production. The sum total of these relations of production constitutes the economic structure of society — the real foundation, on which rises a legal and political superstructure and to which correspond definite forms of social consciousness.

The mode of production of material life determines the social, political and intellectual life process in general.

It is not the consciousness of men that determines their being, but, on the contrary, their social being that determines their consciousness.

Therefore by seeding fear, of different classes government, military, police, organizations change the behavior its citizen, being able to manipulate them, to the point of committing atrocities. History is full of samples.

Fear Mongering

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

Definition : The use of fear to influence the opinions and actions of others towards some specific end.

The feared object or subject is created, like stories, twisting facts, lying, half truths, always instilling fear, exaggerated facts, specially appeals to the uneducated and ignorant, to the masses, to radicals. It is done to obtain a predetermine objective.

The pattern of fear mongering is one of repetition, in order to continuously reinforce the intended effects of this tactic, over and over and over again.

The fear mongering, is then spread over all forms of communication media, specially at election time.

Fear, the Motivator

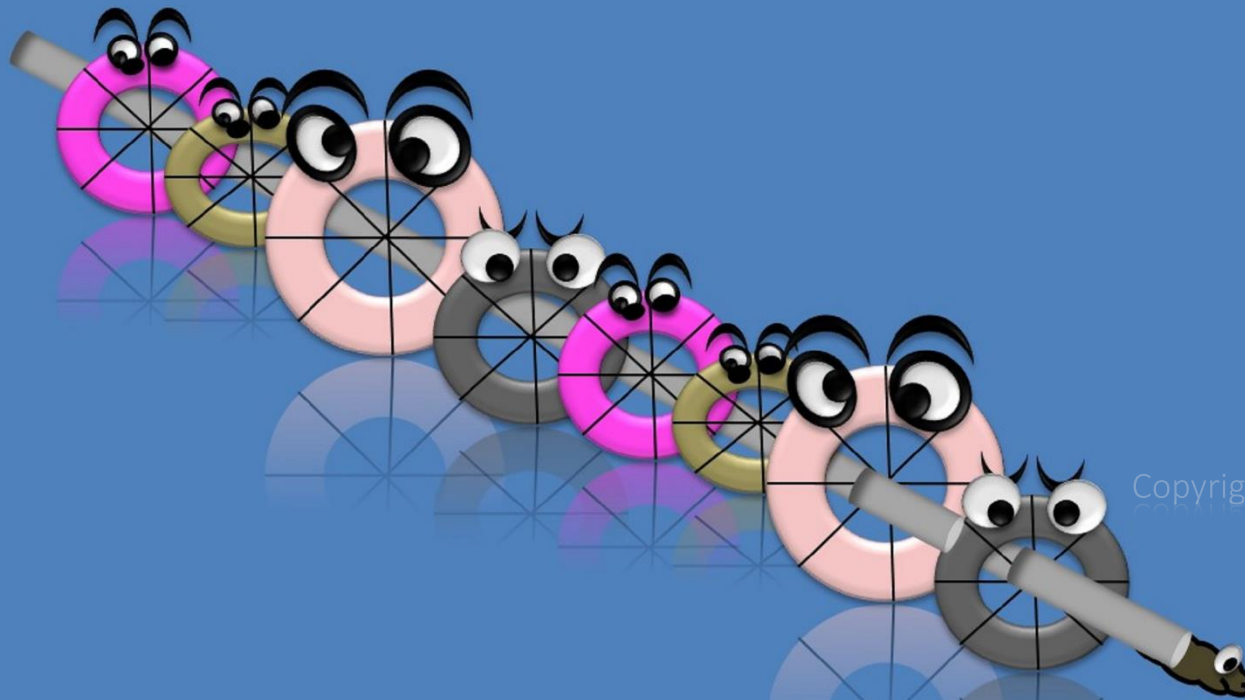

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

Fear : an unpleasant often strong emotion caused by anticipation or awareness of danger

Fear is an emotion induced by a threat perceived by living entities, which causes a change in brain and organ function and ultimately a change in behavior, such as running away, hiding or freezing from traumatic events. By instilling fear in society rules are able to change behavior

Franklin D. Roosevelt 32nd President of the United States
March 4, 1933.....First of all, let me assert my firm belief that the only thing we have to fear is...fear itself — nameless, unreasoning, unjustified terror which paralyzes needed efforts to convert retreat into advance..

Knowledge is the antidote to fear

The same speech

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

Career Politician only care about getting elected.

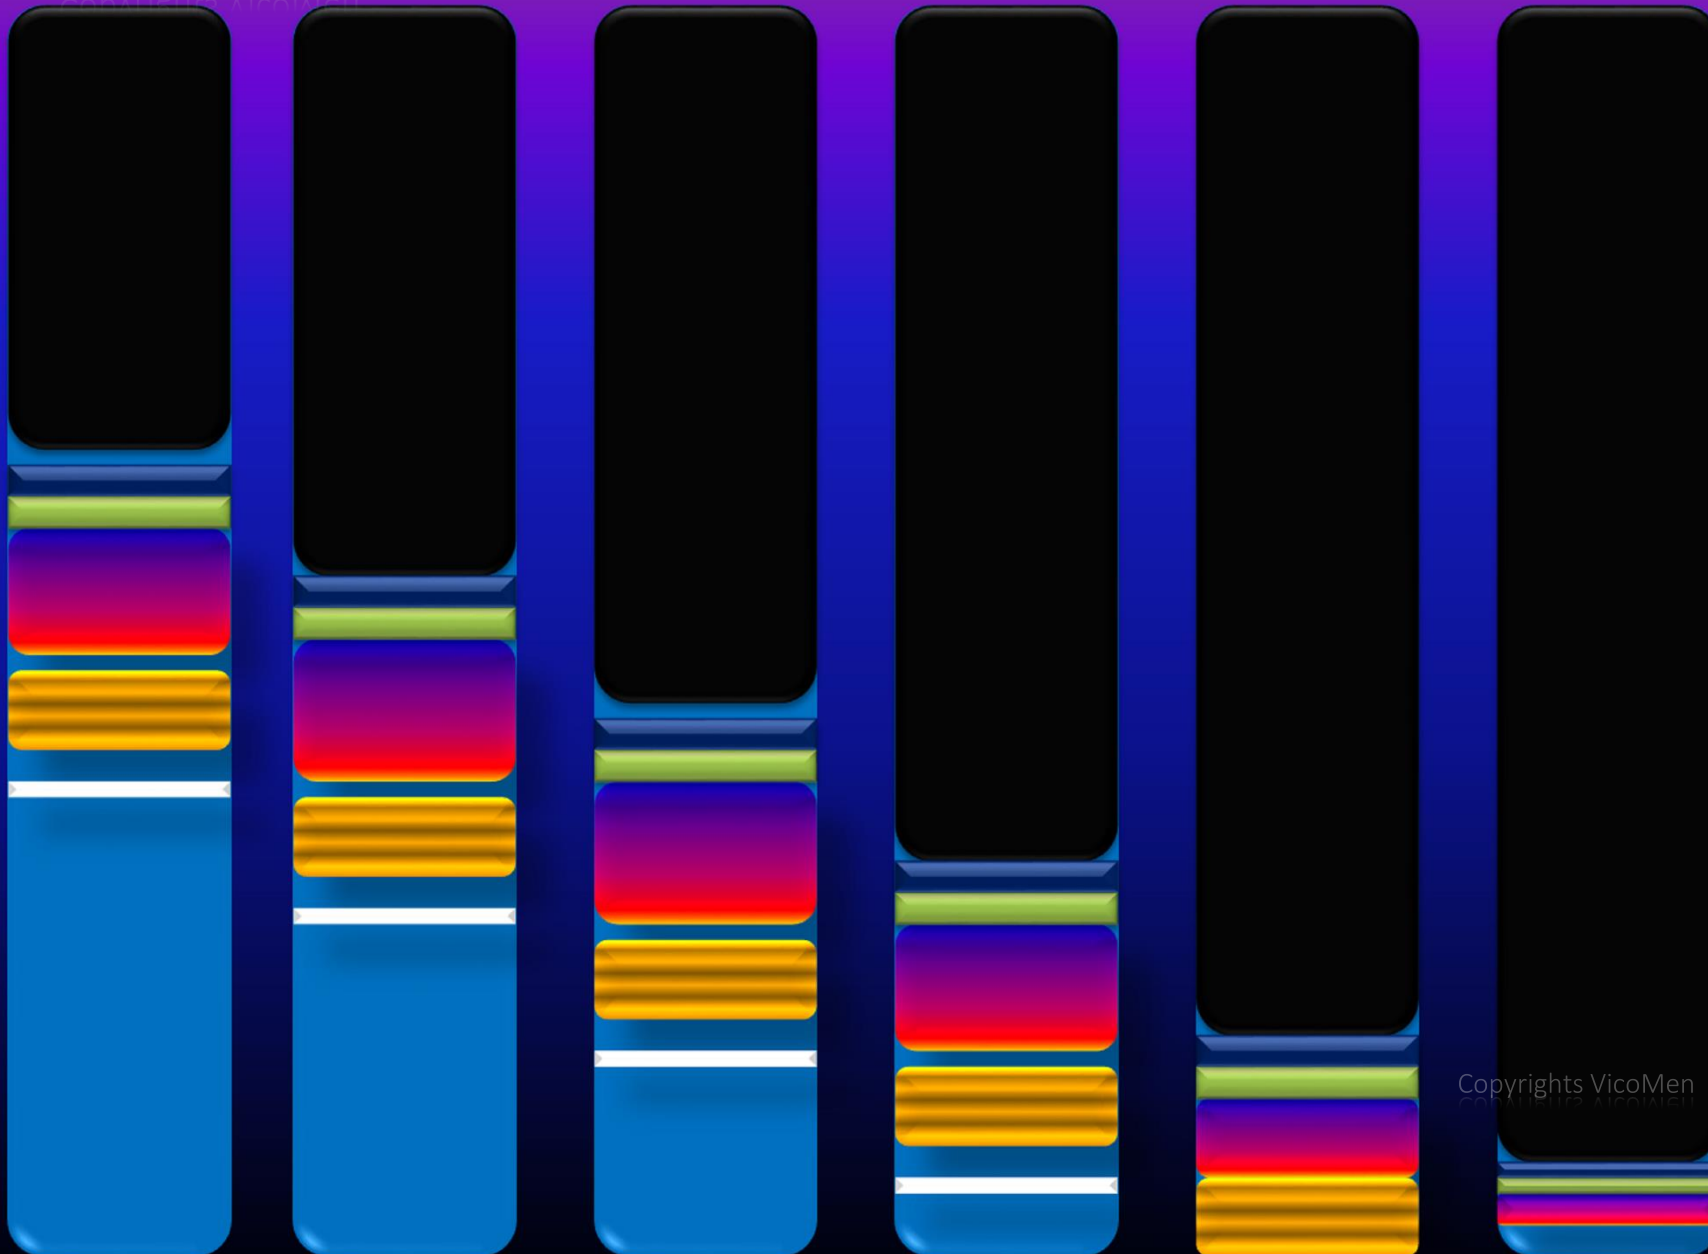

They have a relative easy formula, they only have to target a small portion of the masses that vote.

Tell them what they want to hear, and above all inculcate fear to those people, it works, that is why they do it.

The political affiliation is validly, and the speech formula is the same.

The incapacity to present and develop ideas the would advances society is not within there grasp.

The ignorance, indulgence, and irresponsibility of the majority, provokes this situation, and creates a cycle.

The law of tax progression

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

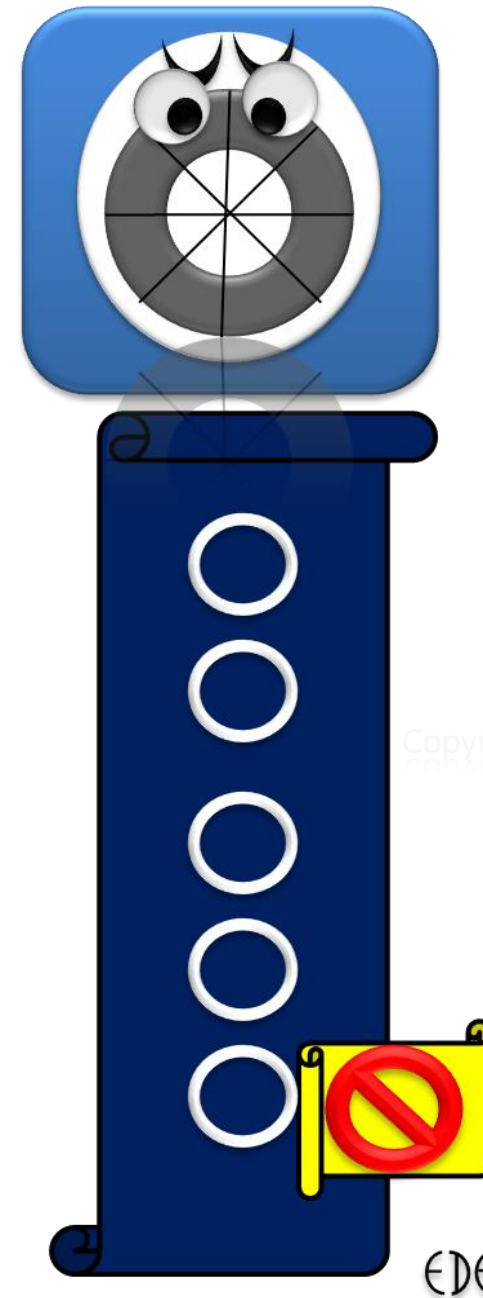

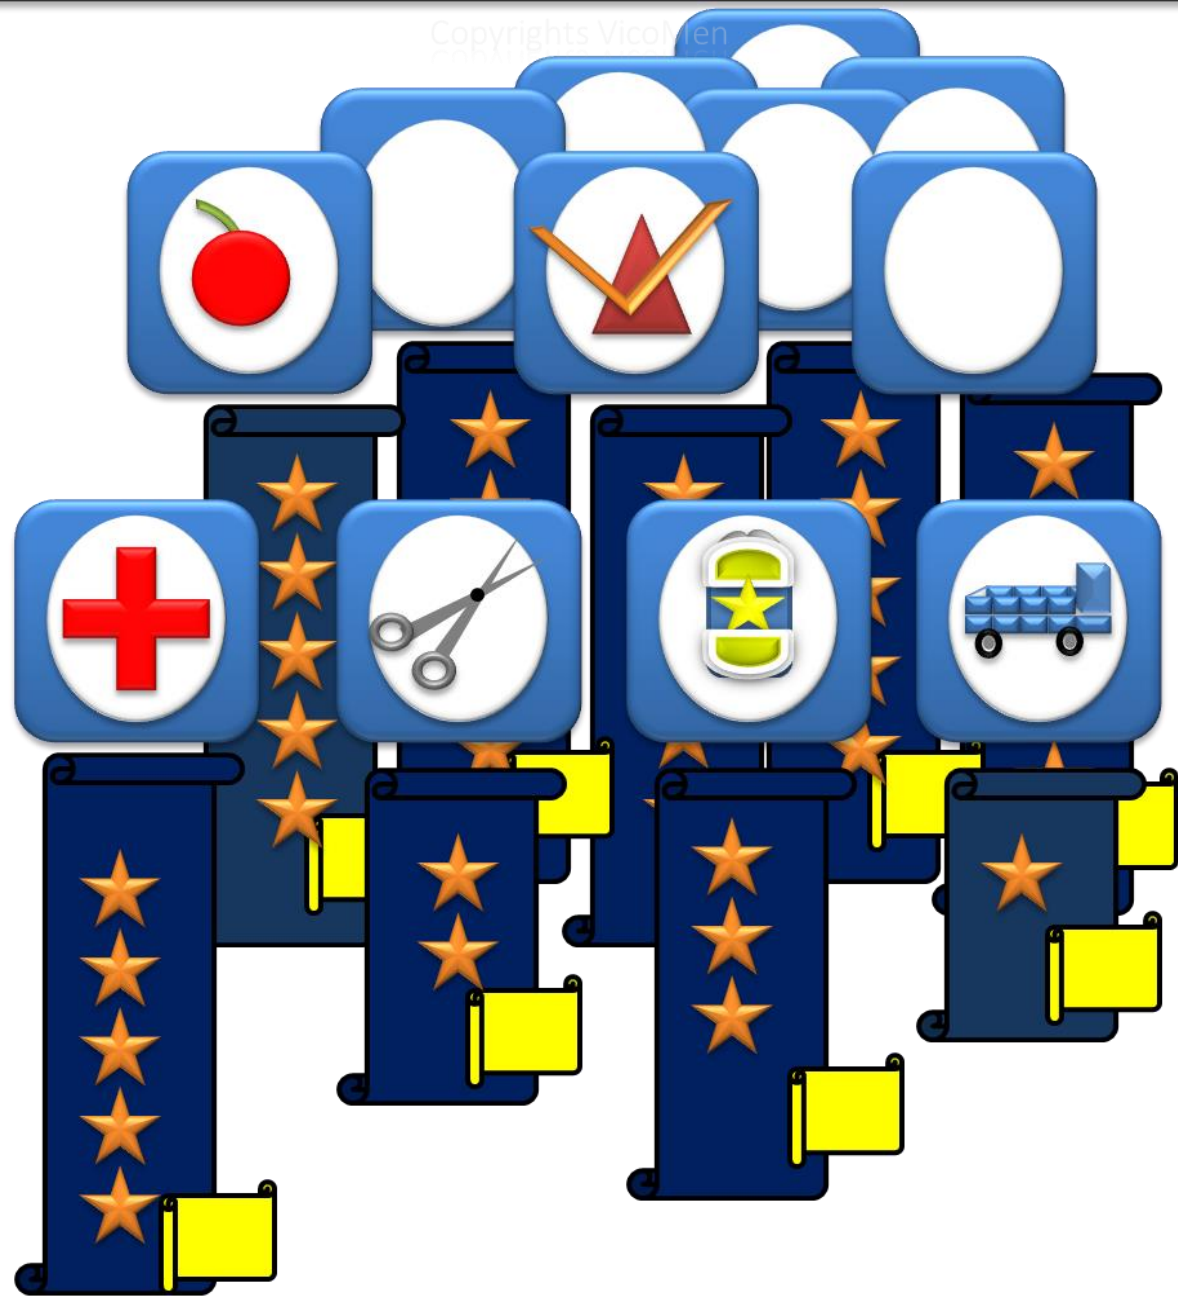

No matter , the country,
the state, or municipality, the natural law of Tax progression is to continue to grow, and grow, and grow.....

Until it kills, by asphyxia the people it supposed to help.

They always find a cause
to get more, while they see you breathing.

Democracy... while it lasts is more bloody
than either aristocracy or monarchy.
Remember, democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts, and murders itself. There is never a democracy that did not commit suicide.

John Adams

Except of for the Captain

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

Contradiction ?

You must meet the requirement set by government in order to practice your profession. They put their repressive forces to enforce that law.

But remember the law does not apply to them, that is the law.

Reasoning , the enemy of dictators

By Mendoza-Garrastazu

The Bible, Francis Bacon, Tomas Jefferson, and many other philosophers, all arrive at the same conclusion :

Knowledge is power.

Knowledge gives you the tools to think, to reason, it liberates you, it takes out self imposed limitations and fears.

The worst enemy that any dictatorship has, is a thinking person.

Once you think by your self, based on the knowledge you have , you can not be manipulated.
